

THE FREE PRESS.

GEO. W. & G. B. BENDITT, Editors and Proprietors.

No. 100 of the Press is published weekly.

BURLINGTON:

FRIDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 6, 1857.

Massachusetts Election.

The Telegraph brings word of a decisive

Republican victory in Massachusetts.

There has been such a political confusion in the old Bay State for a long time—no vigorous were the efforts of the pro-slavery democrats and those who train in their company to draw off the public mind from the national question, every feeling of national exclusiveness, every lingering attachment to old issues and old party names to bear against the Republican candidates, especially against Mr. Banks, their candidate for Governor—that we were not over confident of the result. Though for a few weeks past the confusion seemed to be clearing away, and the prospects of a

Republican success growing brighter every day, the combined enemy were loud in their assurances of a complete victory, and we were as well as hoped. The Traveler—

Mr. Gardner's great organ—was sure that no human power could prevent Mr.

Gardner's election. As for the open mouthed pro-slavery democrats, they did not hope for the election of Banks; but to defeat

Banks would do nearly as well. The Straight Republicans also, (who set up an organ which blew out after playing seven tunes) did not dream of anything more than to help to defeat Banks. But the end of it all is an overwhelming defeat for all three.

NEW YORK STATE ELECTION.—We have

noticed decisive from the New York State election which occurred Tuesday. The dispatch shows for the Democrats so far;

but a great part of the State is yet unheard from.

Governor Walker.

Governor Walker has done nothing but

play fast and loose ever since he took his appointment. He has talked on all sides and given assurances which both sides might fairly understand as pledges on his part to act in their favor when the time of trial came. He has courted the free-state men and assured them that a full and fair vote should be secured in the State. He has promised the Kansas-Nebraska men, that he would do nothing to prevent the Kansas-Nebraska men from carrying out their policy. He has denounced the free-state men as traitors

and rebels because they understood

that he would do nothing to prevent the

Kansas-Nebraska men from carrying out

their policy. He has said that he would

do nothing to prevent the Kansas-Nebraska

men from carrying out their policy. He has said that he would do nothing to prevent the Kansas-Nebraska men from

carrying out their policy. He has said

that he would do nothing to prevent the

Kansas-Nebraska men from carrying out

their policy. He has said that he would

do nothing to prevent the Kansas-Nebraska

men from carrying out their policy. He

has said that he would do nothing to

prevent the Kansas-Nebraska men from

carrying out their policy. He has said

that he would do nothing to prevent the

Kansas-Nebraska men from carrying out

their policy. He has said that he would

do nothing to prevent the Kansas-Nebraska

men from carrying out their policy. He

has said that he would do nothing to

prevent the Kansas-Nebraska men from

carrying out their policy. He has said

that he would do nothing to prevent the

Kansas-Nebraska men from carrying out

their policy. He has said that he would

do nothing to prevent the Kansas-Nebraska

men from carrying out their policy. He

has said that he would do nothing to

prevent the Kansas-Nebraska men from

carrying out their policy. He has said

that he would do nothing to prevent the

Kansas-Nebraska men from carrying out

their policy. He has said that he would

do nothing to prevent the Kansas-Nebraska

men from carrying out their policy. He

has said that he would do nothing to

prevent the Kansas-Nebraska men from

carrying out their policy. He has said

that he would do nothing to prevent the

Kansas-Nebraska men from carrying out

their policy. He has said that he would

do nothing to prevent the Kansas-Nebraska

men from carrying out their policy. He

has said that he would do nothing to

prevent the Kansas-Nebraska men from

carrying out their policy. He has said

that he would do nothing to prevent the

Kansas-Nebraska men from carrying out

their policy. He has said that he would

do nothing to prevent the Kansas-Nebraska

men from carrying out their policy. He

has said that he would do nothing to

prevent the Kansas-Nebraska men from

carrying out their policy. He has said

that he would do nothing to prevent the

Kansas-Nebraska men from carrying out

their policy. He has said that he would

do nothing to prevent the Kansas-Nebraska

THE FREE PRESS.

GEO. W. & G. B. BENDITT, Editors and Proprietors.

No. 100 of the Press is published weekly.

BURLINGTON:

FRIDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 6, 1857.

Massachusetts Election.

The Telegraph brings word of a decisive

Republican victory in Massachusetts.

There has been such a political confusion

in the old Bay State for a long time—no

vigorous were the efforts of the pro-slavery

democrats and those who train in their

company to draw off the public mind from

the national question, every feeling of

national exclusiveness, every lingering at-

tachment to old issues and old party names

to bear against the Republican candidates,

especially against Mr. Banks, their candi-

date for Governor—that we were not

over confident of the result. Though for

a few weeks past the confusion seemed

to be clearing away, and the prospects of a

Republican success growing brighter every

day, the combined enemy were loud in their

assurances of a complete victory, and we

were as well as hoped. The Traveler—

Mr. Gardner's great organ—was sure

that no human power could prevent Mr.

Gardner's election. As for the open mouth-

ed pro-slavery democrats, they did not hope

for the election of Banks; but to defeat

Banks would do nearly as well. The

Straight Republicans also, (who set up an

organ which blew out after playing

seven tunes) did not dream of anything

more than to help to defeat Banks. But

the end of it all is an overwhelming defeat

for all three.

NEW YORK STATE ELECTION.—We have

noticed decisive from the New York State

election which occurred Tuesday. The

dispatch shows for the Democrats so far;

but a great part of the State is yet un-

heard from.

Governor Walker.

Governor Walker has done nothing but

play fast and loose ever since he took his

appointment. He has talked on all sides

and given assurances which both sides

might fairly understand as pledges on his

part to act in their favor when the time

of trial came. He has courted the free-state men

and assured them that a full and fair vote

should be secured in the State. He has

promised the Kansas-Nebraska men, that

he would do nothing to prevent the Kansas-Nebraska

men from carrying out their policy. He has

denounced the free-state men as traitors

and rebels because they understood

that he would do nothing to prevent the

Kansas-Nebraska men from carrying out

their policy. He has said that he would

do nothing to prevent the Kansas-Nebraska

men from carrying out their policy. He

has said that he would do nothing to

prevent the Kansas-Nebraska men from

carrying out their policy. He has said

that he would do nothing to prevent the

Kansas-Nebraska men from carrying out

their policy. He has said that he would

do nothing to prevent the Kansas-Nebraska

men from carrying out their policy. He

has said that he would do nothing to

prevent the Kansas-Nebraska men from

carrying out their policy. He has said

that he would do nothing to prevent the

Kansas-Nebraska men from carrying out

their policy. He has said that he would

do nothing to prevent the Kansas-Nebraska

men from carrying out their policy. He

has said that he would do nothing to

prevent the Kansas-Nebraska men from

carrying out their policy. He has said

that he would do nothing to prevent the

Kansas-Nebraska men from carrying out

their policy. He has said that he would

do nothing to prevent the Kansas-Nebraska

men from carrying out their policy. He

has said that he would do nothing to

prevent the Kansas-Nebraska men from

carrying out their policy. He has said

that he would do nothing to prevent the

Kansas-Nebraska men from carrying out

their policy. He has said that he would

do nothing to prevent the Kansas-Nebraska

men from carrying out their policy. He

has said that he would do nothing to

prevent the Kansas-Nebraska men from

carrying out their policy. He has said

that he would do nothing to prevent the

Kansas-Nebraska men from carrying out

their policy. He has said that he would

do nothing to prevent the Kansas-Nebraska

men from carrying out their policy. He

has said that he would do nothing to

prevent the Kansas-Nebraska men from

carrying out their policy. He has said

that he would do nothing to prevent the

Kansas-Nebraska men from carrying out

their policy. He has said that he would

do nothing to prevent the Kansas-Nebraska

men from carrying out their policy. He

has said that he would do nothing to

prevent the Kansas-Nebraska men from

carrying out their policy. He has said

that he would do nothing to prevent the

Kansas-Nebraska men from carrying out

their policy. He has said that he would

do nothing to prevent the Kansas-Nebraska

THE FREE PRESS.

GEO. W. & G. B. BENDITT, Editors and Proprietors.

No. 100 of the Press is published weekly.

BURLINGTON:

FRIDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 6, 1857.

Massachusetts Election.

The Telegraph brings word of a decisive

Republican victory in Massachusetts.

There has been such a political confusion

in the old Bay State for a long time—no

vigorous were the efforts of the pro-slavery

democrats and those who train in their

company to draw off the public mind from

the national question, every feeling of

national exclusiveness, every lingering at-

tachment to old issues and old party names

to bear against the Republican candidates,

especially against Mr. Banks, their candi-

date for Governor—that we were not

over confident of the result. Though for

a few weeks past the confusion seemed

to be clearing away, and the prospects of a

Republican success growing brighter every

day, the combined enemy were loud in their

assurances of a complete victory, and we

were as well as hoped. The Traveler—

Mr. Gardner's great organ—was sure

that no human power could prevent Mr.

Gardner's election. As for the open mouth-

ed pro-slavery democrats, they did not hope

for the election of Banks; but to defeat

Banks would do nearly as well. The

Straight Republicans also, (who set up an

organ which blew out after playing

seven tunes) did not dream of anything

more than to help to defeat Banks. But

the end of it all is an overwhelming defeat

for all three.

NEW YORK STATE ELECTION.—We have

noticed decisive from the New York State

election which occurred Tuesday. The

dispatch shows for the Democrats so far;

but a great part of the State is yet un-

heard from.

Governor Walker.

Governor Walker has done nothing but

play fast and loose ever since he took his

appointment. He has talked on all sides

and given assurances which both sides

might fairly understand as pledges on his

part to act in their favor when the time

of trial came. He has courted the free-state men

and assured them that a full and fair vote

should be secured in the State. He has

promised the Kansas-Nebraska men, that

he would do nothing to prevent the Kansas-Nebraska

men from carrying out their policy. He has

denounced the free-state men as traitors

and rebels because they understood

that he would do nothing to prevent the

Kansas-Nebraska men from carrying out

their policy. He has said that he would

do nothing to prevent the Kansas-Nebraska

men from carrying out their policy. He

has said that he would do nothing to

prevent the Kansas-Nebraska men from

carrying out their policy. He has said

that he would do nothing to prevent the

Kansas-Nebraska men from carrying out

their policy. He has said that he would

do nothing to prevent the Kansas-Nebraska

men from carrying out their policy. He

has said that he would do nothing to

prevent the Kansas-Nebraska men from

carrying out their policy. He has said

that he would do nothing to prevent the

Kansas-Nebraska men from carrying out

their policy. He has said that he would

do nothing to prevent the Kansas-Nebraska

men from carrying out their policy. He

has said that he would do nothing to

prevent the Kansas-Nebraska men from

carrying out their policy. He has said

that he would do nothing to prevent the

Kansas-Nebraska men from carrying out

their policy. He has said that he would

do nothing to prevent the Kansas-Nebraska

men from carrying out their policy. He